This case is calendared for trial during the July/August 2010 term of court, with jury selection set for Monday, July 12, 2010. The court will conduct a pretrial conference to prepare for trial and to rule on all pending motions on Tuesday, June 15, 2010 at 3:00 p.m. Defense counsel are requested to be present in courtroom no. IV, and the South Carolina Department of Corrections is requested to make arrangements to have the plaintiff participate by satellite transmission from the SCDC.

Following the pretrial conference, the court will enter a pretrial order in the format attached. Accordingly, the parties are directed to come to the pretrial conference prepared to make a full disclosure of all of their witnesses and exhibits. These witnesses and exhibits will be enumerated in the pretrial order and, as indicated in the proposed order attached. No additions thereto will be permitted except absent exceptional circumstances.

The Clerk shall forward a copy of this order to defense counsel, the plaintiff, and to the SCDC. Attached to this order is the court's standard pretrial package of information regarding jury selection and trial procedures.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
